

CODE OF BEHAVIOR

- ✓ Participants should exercise the highest level of professionalism, integrity, ethics, objectivity and mutual respect in their behaviors and relationships with colleagues
- ✓ Hands should be washed before and after all contacts with mannequins. Natural oils found on hands can destroy the mannequins
- ✓ All mannequins and equipment are to be treated with proper care and respect as if they were real patients
- ✓ Equipment and supplies are to be returned to their appropriate location upon completion of simulated exercises
- ✓ Report any damaged, missing or malfunctioning equipment immediately to the Administration of the Center
- ✓ As a participant or observer of a training event, is requested to maintain and hold confidential all information regarding the performance of all individuals and the details of the training scenarios, which are the intellectual property of the University
- ✓ Proper disposal of all consumables in designated containers is mandatory on the premises of the Center

Center visitors are prohibited to:

- ✗ Use ink pens, felt-tipped markers, highlighters, iodine, betadine etc. on or near the mannequins. These items permanently stain trainers and mannequins
- ✗ Use mobile phones and other gadgets for personal purposes during classes at the Center
- ✗ Smoke, have food and beverages in any area of the Center, as well as visiting in a state of alcohol intoxication
- ✗ Discuss the scenarios or the actions of fellow students about simulated learning experiences outside of the Center, as those are for learning purposes ONLY

PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEO

- ✓ All participants grant the Center the irrevocable right and permission to use photographs or video recordings on University and other websites and in publications, promotional flyers, educational materials, or for any other similar purpose without compensation
- ✓ Any photo or video taken during this and future trainings may be used during the debriefing of a scenario

ATTENTION! DRESS CODE

- ✓ Medical gowns or surgery suits, masks and gloves, indoor shoes
- ✓ High and sharp heels are PROHIBITED
- ✓ Long hair should be tied up neatly